Prairie Pointe 2-Bedroom, Project-Based Waiting-List Opening
You must meet the High Priority Homeless Preference Criteria to apply

Prairie Pointe is an apartment complex located in Shakopee with project based rental assistance available for 2-bedroom units for those who qualify. Scott County CDA is administering a State-funded program called, _Bring it Home,_ that offers Prairie Pointe residents residing in some of their 2 bedroom units, project based rental assistance. The rental assistance is attached to the unit, meaning households cannot move to another property with this type of rent assistance. People will typically pay 30% of their income for rent with the project based rental assistance covering the difference each month.

To apply and be placed on the waiting list for Prairie Pointe's two-bedroom units, you must:

> ➢ Meet the criteria for Prairie Pointe's High Priority Homeless Housing Program and be referred directly from the _Housing Hub_ to the Prairie Pointe Program. _See detailed criteria noted in this flyer._

> ➢ You must be a Minnesota Resident at time of application and must meet the unit income and other rent assistance program eligibility criteria. _See detailed criteria noted in this flyer._
